SPEECH BY MRS. W.E.B. DU BOIS
AT HOWARD UNIVERSITY, DECEMBER 8, 1970

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 9, 1970 that a program was held at Cramton Auditorium, Howard University on the evening of December 8, 1970, at which Mrs. W.E.B. DuBois was to be the featured speaker.

Approximately 300 persons were present and the program began at 8:15 p.m. with introductory remarks by Doctor Patrick Chike Onwuachi, Director of African Studies at Howard University. Onwuachi advised that Mrs. DuBois needed no introduction because she was extremely well known in her own capacity as a scholar in addition to her late husband's fame. Onwuachi reads several quotations from the works of W.E.B. DuBois, most of which enunciated the principle that all black people are the same regardless of the country in which they live. Their experience as blacks has been that of subjugation and humiliation at the hands of colonialists and imperialists. He concluded by saying that all black people must unite.

Mrs. DuBois was introduced and stated she was glad to be back at Howard University and made the observation that there had been many changes at Howard since her last visit many years ago. Howard University students are increasingly manifesting their awareness of the black man's plight and are doing a wonderful job of building the University.

It took most black leaders about fifty years to recognize the principle of blackness which her husband had glorified throughout his lifetime. The principle has not yet been accepted by all black people but she is very happy at the progress which is being made to unite black people throughout the world.

AT HOWARD UNIVERSITY, DECEMBER 8, 1970

Although progress in unity is being made, the enemy is intensifying his tactics to subvert that progress. The forces of colonialism and imperialism are at work. These are the same people or forces that initiated the South African declaration which gave the authority to rule South Africa to a handful of whites, and the Balfour declaration which created the state of Israel. These same forces helped write the constitutions of most new nations before they were granted independence. The result was that these nations were directed into adopting governmental systems that were unworkable and into granting concessions to their former colonial masters. The coups taking place in developing nations are not mere accidents but the calculated effort and planning of the imperialists. It was not an accident that Kwame Nkrumah was deposed. It is not by accident that wars are raging in Southeast Asia and in the Middle East. It is not by accident that the British people refused to send troops to Rhodesia but can afford to send troops to a tiny black nation like Anguilla. It was not by accident that Portugal attacked the African nation of Guinea.

Of all the revolutions which have taken place in recent years, the one she admired most was that of Lybia in North Africa. The revolution was carried out by young army officers, the oldest of whom was only twenty-seven. The revolution was carried out by these individuals without them appearing on radio or television. Great secrecy was maintained over their activities and at the time the coup took place the king was traveling abroad. The British Broadcasting Corporation reported that there was little trouble in Lybia but the people in Egypt knew there was definitely a revolution. By the time the world knew a revolution was in progress, it had been perfected and the king, who had earlier considered returning to Lybia, took refuge in Egypt. Egypt is so generous it accepts both non militants and militants. The unification of Egypt, Lybia and Sudan had been perfected before it was announced to the world a few weeks ago.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Mrs. DuBois disputed the historical belief that Arabs started the slave trade in Africa. She maintained that the Romans started the slave trade. Mohammed endeavored to stop the devious trade by waging relentless wars against the Romans. She recounted the grandeur of the Arabs, whom she stated are Africans. The Arabs taught the Roman kings, queens, princes and princesses and developed highly sophisticated architectural designs in Spain.

The program ended with Mrs. DuBois' speech at approximately 10:00 p.m.

Commission Begins Investigation Into Dubois Lecture Complaints

By JEFFREY L. BAKER

The Commission of Inquiry has begun its investigation of complaints that white students were denied admittance to a lecture last week.

The Commission will send a letter today to Ewart Guinier, chairman of the Afro-American Studies Department, asking him to respond to a complaint from Richard F. Green '71.

Green, who is white, claims he was not allowed to enter a lecture last Thursday in Sanders Theatre. The lecture was by Shirley Graham DuBois—widow of W.E.B. DuBois '88—who was invited by the Afro-American Studies Department to speak on the situation in Africa and the Mid-East.

'Members Only'

A memorandum distributed by Guinier before the lecture said that it was open to "the Harvard-Radcliffe community." But several black students kept between 50 and 100 white persons from entering the lecture hall, telling them that the meeting was only for members of the Afro-American society and their guests. Others were told that the meeting was for "Africans" only.

Friday afternoon, DuBois issued a statement deploring the exclusion of persons from her lecture, saying she "was shocked" to learn anyone had been prevented from entering Sanders Theatre on the basis of race.

The Commission of Inquiry met Friday evening after Green gave his complaint to Archie C. Epps III, dean of students and a member of the Commission. The Commission, chaired by Roger Rosenblatt, acting Master of Dunster House, drafted a letter to Guinier, as chairman of the department which sponsored the event. It asked him to respond to Green's complaint, and to comment on the policies involved in such a dispute.

Green claims he was distributing pro-Israel political literature in the hall outside Sanders Theatre at 7 p.m. Thursday when four students asked him to leave the building, saying they disagreed with the content of his leaflets. Green left the building, where he continued to distribute his literature.

At 7:30, Green says, he attempted to enter Sanders Theatre to hear DuBois' speech, but was refused admittance because he was white.

Rosenblatt said last night that "Guinier is obviously not responsible for the actions of individuals," but, as the chairman of the department which sponsored the lecture, he must be aware of the policies involved.

are at least two issues arising from the incident: the right of public entry to events sponsored by a Harvard department, and one group of students' exclusion of other students from a Harvard building because of political disagreements. A corollary question involves the right of University organizations to hold "members only" meetings.

Guinier declined to comment until he saw the written complaint and the letter from the Commission. When he does receive the letter—probably on Tuesday—he will have 10 days to respond. The Commission has asked him to state his knowledge of the facts surrounding the incident, and express his views concerning policy questions which the Sanders incident raises.

DuBois did not know that anyone had been excluded from her lecture until she read a CRIMSON account the next morning.

"I was quite shocked," she said. "The exclusion of anybody from a lecture at a great institution like this is so shortsighted. It's directly against my principles. I don't know who was responsible, but I'm extremely sorry it happened. It would be against my husband's principles, and it's certainly against mine."

The September 22, 1970 issue of the "Daily World", a Communist daily newspaper published in New York City, sets forth on Page 9 the following article under the caption, "Dr. Dubois honored by Black Academy".

"New York, September 21 - Dr. W. E. Burghardt Dubois, the late sociologist and historian, was last night inducted into the Hall of Fame of the Black Academy of Arts and Letters. Present to accept the award was Dr. Dubois' widow, Mrs. Shirley Graham Dubois.

"Mrs. Dubois' visit to her native land from Cairo, Egypt, where she now resides was at first prohibited by the Justice Department on the grounds of alleged 'subversive' associations, but it was later approved as a result of protests.

"Two other prominent black Americans were inducted in the Academy's Hall of Fame at last night's banquet. They were Dr. Carter G. Woodson, founder of the Association for the Life and Study of Negro History, and Henry O. Tanner, artist.

"Others who received recognition were Paul Robeson; C. L. R. James of Trinidad - Tobago, historian - writer; Lena Horne, actress - singer; Diana Sands, actress; and Imamu Amiri Baraka (Leroy Jones) poet and playwright.

"The first annual banquet also honored eight black men and women elected earlier to membership on Friday, the opening day of the three - day event.

"The eight new members are Leroy Jones, Ernest Crichlow, painter and teacher; Ernest Dunbar, journalist and editor; Elma Lewis, Choreographer, actress and teacher; Paule Marshall, author; Dorothy Louise Porter, curator and librarian; J. Saunders Redding, author and scholar; and Lucille D. Roberts, artist.

During October 1970, [] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on October 13, 1970, Shirley Graham Dubois spoke at the Horace Mann Auditorium at Teachers College, Columbia University. Her talk there was sponsored by the Student Forum and Black Representative Organization at Teachers College, Columbia University.

The October 14, 1970 issue of Columbia University "Daily Spectator" sets forth on Page 3 a photograph of Shirley Graham Dubois and the following article concerning her talk on October 13, 1971, at Teachers College. This article was written by Jerry Block under the heading "Mrs. Dubois Backs Arab Cause".

"Shirley Graham Dubois, the widow of black radical W. E. B. Dubois, last night called for black solidarity with Egypt in her struggle against Israel.

"In a speech last night in Horace Mann Auditorium at Teachers College, Mrs. Dubois told the predominantly black audience of nearly 600 that 'Israel is not our enemy because she is a Jewish state, but because she is a white, racist, imperialist state.'

"The black radical's widow, who lives in Africa and until recently was denied entry into the United States, quoted the late president of Egypt, Gamel Abdul Nasser, who wrote that Egypt was 'the protector to the northeast gate of Africa.'

"If Egypt falls, all of Africa will be in danger of being ground under the imperialist's heel,' Mrs. Dubois declared.

"The author of a forthcoming book 'Egypt is Africa', Mrs. Dubois contended that rather than being separate from 'Africa south of the Sahara' Egypt is historically and culturally tied to black Africa.

"Why do I stress to you tonight that Egypt is Africa?' she asked. 'Because every black must be able to look in the mirror and say I have a heritage, my people gave the world the foundations of much of their science and arts.'

"In response to a listener who asked if blacks should emigrate to Africa, Mrs. Dubois insisted that 'there is a future for blacks in America' and urged building black pride among American Blacks.

"The goal is not integration, but pride in self,' she stated."

During October, 1970, [] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on October 16, 1970, Shirley Graham Dubois attended a "Black State Reception and Dinner" at the Hotel Pierre in New York City, which was sponsored by the Congress of African Peoples (CAP).

The Congress of African Peoples held September 3 - 7, 1970, in Atlanta, Georgia, has been publicly described as an expansion of Black Power Conferences held in 1966, 1967 and 1968 in the United States, and in 1969 in Bermuda, all of which attracted thousands of black people. The ideology expressed during the Congress of Pan - Africanism is described as a working relation between blacks in America and those on the continent of Africa.

APPENDIX

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

The Committee on Un-American Activities, House report 3123, September 21, 1950, cites the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) as a Communist front which is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party.

A confidential source advised during April, 1969, that the President of the NLG stated at a NLG banquet held in New York City on April 12, 1969, that the NLG has organized young people to work in a radical movement which is seeking to destroy a corrupt, violent society.

A second source advised on April 17, 1969, that the President of the New York Chapter of the NLG spoke at above banquet stating that the purpose of the NLG is to advance the "social revolution" taking place in this country. In furtherance of this purpose, the NLG has established Student Guild Chapters and given counsel to draft resisters and military personnel seeking peace.

A third source furnished information on October 20, 1969, that the NLG is going through a change which is evidenced by dissension between the young and old members of the guild.

[redacted] Hanford and Henderson Corporation, 71 Murray Street, New York City, advised on May 20, 1970, that the NLG currently occupies the 9th floor at 1 Hudson Street, New York, New York, with a lease effective until April, 1974.

The April 28, 1973, edition of "The Sun Reporter", which is a weekly newspaper, directed to the Negro population in the San Francisco Bay Area, contained a photograph of Mrs. Shirley Graham Du Bois. The caption which accompanied the photograph reflected that Mrs. Du Bois was being honored at a dinner engagement by the Vincent Hallinans. Pictured with Mrs. Du Bois were seven other individuals, one of whom was Betina Aptheker, self admitted member of the Communist Party (CP) U.S.A.

Records of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) reflect the following information concerning Dr. Carlton Goodlett:

Carlton Benjamin Goodlett was born July 23, 1914, at Chipley, Florida. His past residence has been 2080 O'Farrell Street, Apartment 309, San Francisco, California. He is a physician and surgeon with offices at 1360 Turk Street, San Francisco, California. He is the owner and publisher of "The Sun Reporter", a weekly newspaper published in San Francisco, California. Goodlett was awarded a Ph.D. Degree from the University of California at Berkeley, and was awarded a Medical Doctor Degree from Meharry Medical School. He received an honorable discharge from the U.S. Army during World War II because of a physical disability.

On November 20, 1945, [] advised that Carlton Benjamin Goodlett had joined the Communist Party (CP).

On January 24, 1947, [] advised that Goodlett was discussed at a meeting of the Dewey Davis branch of the CP, the Medical Branch, San Francisco, California, on January 15, 1947. This meeting was held at 1233 Fourth Avenue, San Francisco, and the discussion was to the effect that even though Goodlett did not attend many meetings of this branch, he was to be continued on the rolls of the CP because of the tremendous amount of work he was doing on the outside.

"The People's World", a West Coast CP newspaper, in its issue, November 14, 1970, set forth that Goodlett was awarded the Lenin Peace Prize by a Soviet Government Representative at the 53rd Anniversary celebration of the Russian Revolution, sponsored by the American-Russian Institute of San Francisco, Inc. (ARI).

The ARI has been cited by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

b7D [] advised in May, 1972, that Goodlett was a long standing member of the Presidium of the World Peace Council (WPC) and travels all over the world attending meetings of this organization.

The WPC, also known as the World Council of Peace, was formed at the conclusion of the Second World Peace Congress held in Warsaw November 16 - 20, 1950, under communist initiative. It continues today as a major international effort to discredit the United States.

Records of the FBI also reflect the following information concerning Vincent William Hallinan:

b7D On April 1, 1968, [] advised it was reported that Vincent Hallinan had offered to be one of the sponsors of the anti-war march and rally which was to be held in San Francisco and in addition had offered to donate $500 to this cause.

According to [] Vincent William Hallinan was present during a fund raising reception and cocktail party held in Marin County, California September 15, 1968, which was given in honor of a member of the National Committee, Communist Party, U.S.A.
